SUNS' MORRIS TWINS PROVIDE THANKSGIVING FOR 25 FAMILIES

In the spirit of giving, Suns' Marcus and Markieff Morris provided 25 families from Helping Hands for Single Moms with a free Thanksgiving dinner. Each family received a full, pre-cooked meal. The Morris twins helped package meals and take holiday photos with each family.

SUNS' VISIT ST. JUDE'S CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL IN MEMPHIS

Suns' players and staff take a break from their road trip to spread holiday cheer at St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis before the Suns vs. Grizzlies game.

SUNS SUPPORT MILITARY WITH "HOLIDAY CARDS FOR TROOPS"

In a continuous effort to support our nation's military, the Suns are inviting fans to write a special message to troops overseas as part of a "Holiday Cards for Troops" campaign during Suns home games through December 6th. The Suns are joining the efforts of Arizona resident Lynda Wooten, who began sending holiday cards overseas in 2003 while her son served as a medic in Iraq.

SUNS' FRYE HOSTS MEET AND GREET WITH FANS COURTESY OF COORS LIGHT

Phoenix Suns forward Channing Frye hosted a meet and greet with fans at Zipps Sports Grill in Chandler. Frye took pictures and signed autographs courtesy of Coors Light.

SUNS' LEN SIGNS AUTOGRAPHS FOR FANS AT ROOMSTORE

Phoenix Suns' rookie Alex Len visited fans at Roomstore in Scottsdale where he signed autographs and took pictures with eager fans.
